

Occupational Safety, Health & Environmental Policy

INSTITUT JANTUNG NEGARA has a fundamental responsibility and commitment to provide our employees, customers, contractors, suppliers and the public a safe and healthy environment. We will take reasonable measures to prevent job related injuries and illnesses within the institution in compliance to safety and health laws and regulations.

It is our policy to:

- Ensure a safe and healthy work environment at all times.
- Impose safe working practices and provide adequate training to employees.
- Investigate and report all incidents related to safety, health and environment.
- Continuous improvement of the environment management system.
- Collaborate with government agencies and other related parties in improving the safety, health & environment.
- Ensure accountability of each individual for the achievement of these objectives.

We will inculcate safety, health & environment culture within the organisation which is essential to the overall success of our services.

We will address safety, health & environmental issues reported by the employees, customers, contractors, suppliers and the public without retaliatory action by the management.
